How much time does your staff spend answering questions about attendance boundaries and children's school of attendance?

iSchoolFinder was developed by Total School Solutions specifically to assist school districts in providing timely school boundary information for your parents and community. iSchoolFinder is a web-based program and tool that allows parents and interested community members to enter their home address through your district website and obtain the name, address, and Google map of the school their child will attend.

iSchoolFinder eliminates staff time spent checking maps or spreadsheets and answering boundary questions. Parents can, at their convenience, find the information on the internet without visiting the school or district office.
